The Soviet Chronicles

So I was reading through the Carthian book's history section, and the Marxist Carthian Revolution plothook got me thinking... What else do we know about the Soviet Union in Chronicle World? Off the top of my head:

- The Soviet Carthians, dubbed the Russian Soviet Carthian Ballet in my Chronicles, ruled the nights of the USSR from 1917 to 1977
- Demonic spies and counterspies in Berlin courtesy of Dark Eras
- Dr Elizarov acts as the Demiurge for Tsar Bomba in 1958
- Forthcoming information about Demons living through the Russian Revolution in the Dark Eras companion.

What else is out there? Has anyone played a Chronicle set in the Soviet Bloc?

The 60s Berlin setting describes a Soviet psychic project, while Heirs to Hell briefly mentions somethig similar that focused on Stigmatics and Demon-Blooded.

From Geist, The Sharaska was a conspiracy that in 1950 discovered a way to create Sin-Eaters by drowning people. They were wiped out in the 70s.

Werewolves acted as smugglers, bringing heroin into the Soviet Union from Afghanistan.

The Lodge of the Lost defeated the second of the Great Darkness' minions in the Siberian tundra of the Soviet Union around 1962. 'It stood 30 feet tall; appearing as a squat stone serpent, the entity the spirits called 'Nalak' loomed 100 feet long and exuded a constant aura of corruption as it limbered and consumed those who got too close.'

Tony 'Saint Anthony' Markov of the Fire-Touched was from there and became who he was after an epidemic of ergot poisoning.

Damon Rafcliffe and his pack of fanatical Ivory Claws, simply called Vengeance, once planned to steal and reprogram Soviet nuclear weaponry to launch at the moon.

Not so much Soviet, but a spirit of revenge claimed a Ukrainian politician whose family suffered at the hands of the Soviets and has become a very powerful influence in Odessa.

The Azlu were abundant there while the USSR still existed, with the suppression of religious belief helping them strengthen the Gauntlet.

The first Backbiter fetish was madde there when an assassin asked for vengeance and an Iron Master offered her a chance and bound the assassins ghost into her gun.

In Moscow under Krushchev, the political situation forced the Pure and Forsaken to fight deep in the shadows, and a Storm Lord eventually used the shadows against the Pure, basically identifying the Pure and their allies as dissidents and having them killed, arrested or relocated.

The Diurnal Courts (Day and Night) as seen in Winter Masques are the primary Changeling courts in Russia.
